

Australian Parachute Federation
SAFETY PARTICIPATE

A freefall or canopy collision can be disastrous. A skydiver falling at terminal velocity of 120 mph or faster, making even the slightest contact with a stationary canopy or another freefaller has catastrophic effects. Tunnel vision, not looking, poor planning, inexperience, panic and not tracking can all cause a collision.

