

A low turn, done to build up speed for landing, should allow you to fly out of it on full drive.

If you need to apply brakes immediately, you started the turn too low.

The Corner

"Stay out of the corner!"

John LeBlanc